

think this will come back up again? No, it will never come back up again, you can bet. I'll bet you it's back up here in two years. I hope you people understood those figures. The inconsistency of this body, I will tell you, it really is something when it comes to this. On the 57th day there's a conflict, it's inconsistent and it's bad public policy. I would urge you to defeat this amendment. Thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Good closing. We will...

SENATOR ROBINSON: I got in a trance because I was looking at that white hair over there, Senator Lindsay. I really, I really fouled up. You know what I want you to do. Push that green button.

SPEAKER BAACK: You've heard the closing on the amendment offered by Senator Robinson. We will now vote on that amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Senator Robinson.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Call of the house, please.

SPEAKER BAACK: We have a request for a call of the house. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 15 ayes, 0 nays to go under call.

SPEAKER BAACK: The house is under call. All members please report to the Chamber and record your presence. The house is under call. All members please report to the Chamber and record your presence. The house is under call. The house is under call. Members, please report to the Chamber and record your presence. The house is under call. Senator Ashford, record your presence, please. Senator Bohlke, record your presence, please. Senator Warner, would you record your presence, please. Senator Rasmussen, would you record your presence, please. We are looking for Senators Bernard-Stevens and Wesely. The house is under call. Members, please report to the Chamber. We are looking for Senator Bernard-Stevens. Senator Schmit, would you record your presence, please. All members are now present. We will have a roll call vote on the Robinson amendment. Please keep your conversations down so the Clerk may hear your responses. Mr. Clerk, call the roll.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See pages 2096-97 of the